HUGHES FLAYS DEMOCRATS FOR HIGH COST OF LIVING

(By Associated Press.)
BATAVIA, Nov. 2.—Candidate Charles E. Hughes told his audience here that he is entirely confident of winning Ohio and Indiana. Hughes said that the receptions given him perhaps exceeded those of any other presidential candidate. He assailed the Democrats nationally for extravagance, and a complete failure to reduce the high cost of living as promised in 1912.

DEUTSCHLANDS CARGO VALUE $10,000,000 SAYS CAPT. KOENIG

(By Associated Press.)
NEW LONDON, Nov. 2.—Naval custom officials are preparing to examine the Deutschland to determine if all neutrality rules were observed. The status as a merchantman was established when the submarine arrived last July. Much curiosity has been aroused concerning the exact nature of the cargo of 700 tons which is valued at $10,000,000 by Captain Koenig, and is supposed to include securities, jewels, drugs, and dyestuffs. The citizens here are preparing a formal welcome in connection with the Chamber of Commerce dinner, which Captain Koenig and his officers have agreed to attend. The bags of mail from Germany were brought ashore today.

PRESIDENT DISCUSSES POLITICS; NO MARINA ANNOUNCEMENT

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—President Wilson arrived from upstate campaign today and boarded the government yacht Mayflower for a political conference. Lack of time compelled the cancellation of a part of the program. No announcement is yet made regarding the Marina disaster, said the president.

The president addressing the Business Men's League today, criticized business "for resisting changes," declaring that Wall street lacked vision. Men who treated employees as partners are the most prosperous, said he. The amount of genius exerted resisting changes in existing conditions, continued the president, "is a great indictment, and brains have been burned out acting as brakes."

ROBBERS MAKE CLEAN UP IN ILLINOIS VILLAGE

(By Associated Press.)
BRAIDWOOD, Ills, Nov. 2.—Four automobile bandits operating quietly and not disturbing the sleeping village watchman, cut all telephone and telegraph wires last night, isolating this village, and then entered the private bank of the W. H. Odell Company and blew open the safe, escaping with $6,000. A posse is in pursuit.

PHOENIX, Nov. 2.—So great is the overwhelming sentiment in favor of Tom Campbell, Republican candidate for governor, that preparations have been made to form "Make It Unanimous" Clubs to further his election during the remaining days of the campaign.

And, according to Republican leaders, it looks like "Campbell Unanimous."

Reports from all parts of Arizona have been so favorable toward the chances of Tom Campbell that local voters of all political faiths have decided to form several "Make It Unanimous" Clubs. The idea met with instant favor and scores of voters are daily telephoning to Republican headquarters asking to have their names included in the new organization.

It is expected that several similar clubs will be formed in many other towns in the state as a result of the great number of voters who are rallying to the head of the Republican ticket. So great has been the rush thus far that it appears as though partisanship has been placed in the discard.

The statements issued by Thomas Maddock, chairman of the Republican state central committee and Allan B. Jaynes, national Republican committeeman, that both Campbell and Kibbey would carry the state have not met with the approval of the Democratic publicity bureau but the organizing of "Make It Unanimous" Clubs and the rapidly swelling membership in this organization seems to strengthen the contention of Republican leaders.

From now until November 7 the plea will be "Make it Unanimous."

VILLISTAS KILL ESCORT OF PASSENGER TRAIN

MEXICANS THEN ROB PASSENGERS OF ALL VALUABLES AND CLOTHING—ONE GERMAN DOCTOR MISTAKEN FOR AN AMERICAN IS ROUGHLY HANDLED, BUT WAS NOT KILLED.

(By Associated Press.)
CHIHUAHUA CITY, Nov. 2.—Yesterday 200 Villistas shot down in the passengers' view, twenty-nine Carranzistas who were escorting the passenger train, which left Juarez last Monday. The bandits looted the train and robbed the passengers and took even the clothing from the women. Dr. Haffner, a German passenger, was mistaken for an American and hit on the head with a clubbed gun, and the conductor of the train was shot in the

GERMANY WILL SINK ALL SHIPS WITH ALLIES' SUPPLIES

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The state department is awaiting Germany's version of the Marina torpedoing and the survivors' affidavits. Last night's Athens' dispatch stating that Greece was informed that Germany intended sinking without warning any ship that carries allies' supplies is considered highly important.

Secretary Lansing said today that he understood Germany's pledge not to sink merchantmen unwarned applied to ships with defensive armament, although he admitted that Germany's view of armed vessels' status differed from that of the United States.

TOM CAMPBELL'S OPPONENTS ATE AT "SCAB" HASHERY

(Special to the Yuma Daily Examiner.)
BISBEE, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Early in the campaign, much was made by his opponents over the fact that Tom Campbell ate a plate of hot cakes and drank a cup of coffee in a picketed Bisbee restaurant run by Bill Traux, a friend of twenty years' standing.

It now develops that not only Governor Hunt, Mr. Campbell's opponent, but also Henry Ashurst and Carl Hayden, while in Bisbee took most of their meals at the Copper Queen Dining-room, which was declared unfair by the Warren District Trades' Council, along with Bill Traux.

The Copper Queen Hotel does not employ union waiters, is still on the unfair list, the fact is well known in Bisbee and was known to Hunt, Hayden and Ashurst, but they evidently thought no mention would be made of it because the Copper Queen Dining-room was not picketed.

Hunt avoids picketed restaurants for political reasons and not out of sympathy for the unions and has no hesitancy in eating in unfair places as long as there is no danger of getting caught.

BUYING FURNITURE IN EUROPE

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Bond street dealers in antique, and "sham antique" furniture declare that the war-lull in local trade has been more than offset by American buying. These Americans do not seem the least perturbed by the high ocean rates. They are, however, driving better bargains than in the old days. It is no longer the custom to palm off sham antiques for real. It is said that people of moderate means are perfectly content to have things look like the most valuable article at a correspondingly cheap figure. "We are getting Americans now," one dealer is quoted as saying, "but there is not so much to be made out of them. They know what they want, and what is more they know the price they want to pay."

GERMANS LOSE FORTIFICATIONS WON BY THE CROWN PRINCE

ON THE WAR FRONT.—The Germans have evacuated Fortvaux, one of the most important fortifications which the German crown prince captured during the prolonged Verdun drive. Fortvaux was endangered when the French recently recaptured Fort Douaumont with a wide portion of the adjacent front. Observers considered Vaux' fall only a question of time. Virtually all the important ground east of the Meuse, taken by the Germans during the winter and spring Verdun offensives now is lost to the allies. The French have gained somewhat on the Somme front but Berlin still claimed that the main British-French attacks have failed.
